www.gfhs.org.uk

Gloucestershire Family History Society website

www.stmarys-berkeley.co.uk/

Has interesting information about Berkeley Parish Church

www.berkeley-castle.com/about.html

This site has some interesting pictures and a bit of the Castle's History.

www.scribes-alcove.co.uk/results.php?Surname=Cope

Database of baptism, marriage and burial records extracted from six Gloucestershire parishes around Berkeley and Thornbury.

www.coalpitheath.org.uk/beginnings

An interesting site about Coalpit Heath's history and details of the church.

www.framptoncott.co.uk/rhistory.html

Snippets of History about the area. Mentions the Hatting Industry and shows a picture of a Hat factory.

www.westerleigh.f9.co.uk

This website gives the details of the Village Plan, but it starts with an interesting background and potted history.

www.britishlistedbuildings.co.uk/en-397400-church-of-st-thomas-of-canterbury-pucklechurch

Has some technical information about this Church of Norman origin and in the Bing Map/Bird's eye view you can get a good aerial view of the village.

www.megalithic.co.uk/article.php?sid=1641963423

Gives a few details of the Old Sodbury Hill Fort and pictures

www.norfolkbroads.com/regional-information/artisans-and-rural-affairs/pargeting-plaster-of-venice

An interesting site about Pargeting, although it applies to the east of England rather than Gloucestershire where my forebears had their business. If you Google "Pargeting" there are several useful sites by current practitioners, the patterns and pictures being very interesting.
